

Lander University, Greenwood, South Carolina
Assistant / Associate Professor of Management
College of Business.

The Position: The College of Business (COB) invites qualified candidates to apply for a tenure track Assistant/Associate Professor of Management to start in January 2024.

Minimum Qualifications: Applicants must have an earned doctorate in a management discipline or a directly-related field from an accredited business school. ABDs will be considered.

Knowledge/Skills/Ability: We seek candidates with demonstrated teaching ability in management and the willingness and capability to develop and improve a portfolio of courses in various subjects related to their expertise. Qualified candidates will have excellent communication skills and the ability to work cooperatively with colleagues in a collegial campus community. Preferred candidates will be able to teach principles of management, operations management, management information systems, entrepreneurship, and business-related courses. Candidates will engage and advise a diverse student population. Previous teaching experience including online teaching and online course development is preferred.

Faculty Responsibilities: This position carries responsibilities in teaching, scholarship, and service. Faculty members typically teach four sections per semester, advise students, serve on university and college committees and engage in professional development activities. Teaching assignments will align with the qualifications of the individual and the needs of the college. Candidates must be willing and qualified to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in management and other business-related fields in both traditional and online settings. COB faculty teach on the Lander University campus located in Greenwood, South Carolina, and at the University Center Greenville in Greenville, South Carolina. COB faculty teach online courses in the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Bachelor of Applied Science, Bachelor of Arts in Entrepreneurship, and graduate programs. Online teaching experience is preferred. Online teaching faculty must complete an online teaching certification course. Candidates must be willing to serve, as assigned, on both COB committees and Lander University committees. According to AACSB engagement and impact guidelines, COB faculty engage with the local community according to their professional area of expertise. This position requires the academic advising of students. Candidates must demonstrate the potential or ability to conduct scholarly research of sufficient quality and quantity to satisfy COB guidelines for AACSB Scholarly Academic (SA) or Scholarly Practitioner (SP) qualification.

Salary: Salary commensurate with education and experience.

The College: The College of Business offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with seven emphasis areas: Accounting, Financial Services, Health Care Management, Sports Management, Hospitality Management, IT Management, and Management/Marketing. The college also offers a campus-based Bachelor of Arts in Entrepreneurship degree. The college also offers a fully online Bachelor of Applied Science in Business Administration. The graduate program includes an online Master of Business Administration program and an online Master of Science in Management program. The primary focus of Lander University is teaching, and the College of Business emphasizes a student-centered learning environment. The College of Business is AACSB accredited. The University offers an excellent benefits package. The college and university support scholarship through research incentive programs, professional and pedagogical travel support, access to databases, and professional development funds. Lander University is in Greenwood, South Carolina, in the Piedmont region, which is only two to four hours from the beautiful South Carolina beaches or the Blue Ridge Mountains.

This position is campus-based and not remote.

Closing Date: Priority will be given to candidates whose files are submitted and complete by October 30, 2023, and reviews will continue until the position is filled.

How to Apply: All applicants should submit the following: A cover letter clearly stating the candidate's teaching experience and subject interest and a current record of scholarly activity that addresses the duties and qualifications stated in the position description, a current curriculum vitae, unofficial copies of all graduate-level transcripts, and the names of three professional references with accurate contact information. Candidates being considered for campus interviews must provide evidence of teaching effectiveness before being invited to campus.

Electronic submissions are required and should be addressed to the College of Business Search Committee and e-mailed to cob-application@lander.edu with the title of Assistant / Associate Professor of Management.
