

Adjunct Instructor - Therapeutic Riding Instructor

The College of Education invites applications for an adjunct instructor position focused on therapeutic riding in our Therapeutic Horsemanship minor.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- ☐ Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.) certification required
- ☐ Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree is preferred
- ☐ Evidence of effective experience with therapeutic equine care and management, including experience in the administration of a therapeutic horsemanship program.

HOW TO APPLY:

Interested individuals may apply by submitting a letter of interest and resume, including the names/phone numbers of three references to:

Candice Rodgers
Administrative Assistant Lander
University College of Education
CPO Box 6011, 320 Stanley Avenue
Greenwood, SC 29649
Phone: 864-388-8380
crodgers@lander.edu

Official transcripts and a satisfactory background check will be required upon hiring.