

The Master of Education Degree in Teaching and Learning (M.Ed.)

Lander University recognizes the needs of teachers and other professional educators to continue advanced studies beyond the bachelor's degree level. The M.Ed. program is designed for the student who has graduated from a regionally accredited college or university with a baccalaureate degree and is seeking a Master's level degree in Teaching and Learning in one of three concentrations: Diverse Learners, Instructional Technology, or Montessori Education.

Degree Requirements

Completion of 36 credit hours of graduate work meeting all the university's standard academic requirements.
