

Clinical Instructor of Nursing
Lander University
Greenwood, SC 29649

Description: The William Preston Turner School of Nursing is seeking applications for a full-time non-tenure track Clinical Instructor position to begin August 15, 2021. This role will include primarily providing clinical instruction in on-campus laboratory settings.

Minimum requirements: Candidates must hold an unencumbered South Carolina Registered Nurse license with a minimum of 2 years experience as a Registered Nurse. The minimum education requirement for appointment to this position is a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. Preference is given to those candidates with recent experience (within 5 years) in an acute or long-term care clinical setting. Preference is also given to those with experience in clinical instruction (within the last 5 years). Must be eligible to provide clinical instruction in agencies utilized by the School of Nursing. A valid driver's license and safe driving history are required. Candidates must possess a current BLS certification

Knowledge, skills and abilities: Good communication and people skills; demonstrated skill in the use of computer technology to conduct and support administrative and teaching activities. Must be willing and able to be trained in laboratory/clinical instruction and clinical use of computers and simulators.

Closing Date: Priority will be given to applicants whose files are complete by March 1, 2021 and review will continue until the position is filled.

How to Apply: All applicants should submit a cover letter clearly stating the candidate's teaching and practice experience and interests that addresses the duties and qualifications articulated in the position description, a current curriculum vitae, and three references with contact information (email and phone number). Electronic submissions are highly preferred and should be addressed to the School of Nursing Search Committee and e-mailed to mcarpenter@lander.edu. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
