LAUNCH your future at Lander University
Located in Greenwood, S.C., Lander University is a state-assisted, four-year university offering all the benefits of a public education, including the affordable price, with an atmosphere that feels more like a small, private college. With traditional areas of study and signature programs in emerging and high-demand fields, Lander is committed to preparing graduates to launch their careers or further their studies at graduate schools across the country.

When you choose Lander, you open the door to exceptional academic programs, engaging cultural opportunities and the support of a close-knit community dedicated to helping you grow, both as a student and as an individual. By choosing Lander, you are making the first step in your journey to a successful future and a lifetime of learning.
