

Lander University Writing Center: ABOUT ONLINE Appointments

Lander.mywconline.com

Description: Although face-to-face sessions provide the best learning conditions, you may schedule an ONLINE appointment. You don't have to be present for the session, which makes this a great option for students this year.

We want you to become a better writer by learning how to improve the quality of your writing overall, not just to improve the quality of one specific paper.

Our writing sessions will:

- Teach you to identify and understand your writing strengths and weaknesses
- Help you find answers
- Help you learn how to research, write, revise, and proofread on your own.
