

Science Lab Instructor Positions Available

Lander University is hiring adjunct instructors for introductory science labs taught at the university. If you have at least a bachelor's degree in biology, chemistry, physics, or a closely related field and are interested in being part of a science class at the college level, we are interested in exploring this possibility with you. Class sections are available for the 2017 spring, summer, and fall sessions as well as the spring semester 2018. Section scheduling can be arranged for morning, afternoon, evening, and Saturdays. To indicate your interest, please submit a letter of application, your vita, and unofficial transcripts for all degrees received to Melissa Thompson at mthompson@lander.edu.

Lander is a tobacco free institution. All final candidates are subject to successfully completing background requirements.

Lander University is committed to equal opportunity employment and being an employer of choice. Lander believes that corresponding differences within the faculty and staff, whether based on ethnicity, race, gender, religion, age, or other experiences, are tremendous assets to the role of Lander as an educational institution and within the community, region, and state. Moreover, Lander is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. As a result, it is the policy and commitment of Lander that it will not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or other protected characteristics.
